

Paul Frey photo

HIGH ON ICE

(Top) Troy Fogarty (left) and Peter Fogarty work on a carving entitled Spirit Struggle in the professional ice carving competition on Saturday. (Bottom left) Karl Mattson carves out part of an abstract figure for the Dawson Creek entry in the Mayor's Cup event, which was won by an entry from Chetwynd. (Bottom right) Emilie Mattson carves the back end of a unicorn during the amateur ice competition on Saturday.

Open the door

Nu

Canada's Food... foods from each... today's hectic life... for those times w... there are nutritio... burger or a can o... nutritional shake... carbohydrates, fa... mins and miner...

These shake... with special diet... diets, those who... conditions, and p... eat well could al... nutrients these s...

Your Medic... can answer any... about nutritiona... happy to help y... your particular

Fort
&
Suite 300, 9730

TH

NORT

LIONS
SOCIETY OF R.C.

Sm
SOCIETY OF R.C.

For further info

100.1
MOOSE
FM

100.1% Fort St. John

Tel: 787-7100 • Fax: 263-9749
Email: reception@moosefm.ca

ROCKIN
THE PEACE

Moose FM, the Kin Club and Dental Records are looking for the best local musicians in the North Peace! If you have an original song, record it and send it our way. Your song could be picked to participate in a compilation CD to be sold throughout the Peace! But wait...that's not all. We'll have two concerts on March 18th & 19th at the North Peace Cultural Centre and the audience will decide who's best! If you are the best you will win a recording contract with Dental Records! To enter visit www.moosefm.ca for details!

LOCAL WA