

ver
a for
o, ir

on a steady down-
ned.
e of these power
ed, it goes on top
For example, if
But Inlet project
re adding some-
and $20 billion to

BC Hydro "would half of their costs," ro is getting into factors in the $7
debt being carried

some reversal of ydro simply has to
"That means even
in areas with run-
e got to be con-
ealth of BC Hydro.
ro paid a dividend
owards the provue. Mair said the e utility is under
e nothing coming
eater."

Board (NEB) sta-
s been a net ener-
ght of the last 11
ted "virtually all"
roduced through made from the
about August.

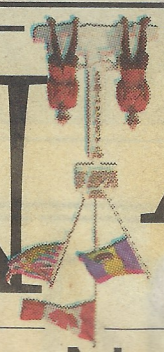

ver IPPs make can
o, because at that eservoirs are full,"
ople don't under-
t store electricity
ater; these private e any storage of
of fact they pride
not putting up

ered that not every fficient runoff to l, and took issue
tation of the NEB

AWSON CREEK

aily News

SINCE 1930

A GLIMPSE OF THE MUSKWA-KECHIKA: Sculptor Emille Mattson and her granddaughter Hollis take a look through Mattson's "Headin' Out" sculpture, a part of the Dawson Creek Art Gallery's latest exhibit. A variety of sculpture, poetry, photographs, paintings and more can be seen decorating the walls, inspired by the beauty of the M-K. The Muskwa-Kechika Exhibition features art from those who attended the Muskwa-Kechika Artist Camps and opened at the gallery Tuesday evening.

MEGAN GORBECK/DGDN

AI Mottishaw
PERSONAL REAL ESTATE CORPORATION
Professional Service

Call AI!

Call: 250.719.8288
Phone: 250.782.8181

RMK
Dawson Creek Realty Ltd.
Independent Member of RE/MAX

www.almottishaw.com

9908

