

the expedition... three artists... one blood line

the placenta canoe

center stage in gallery # 2

→ the journey begins... encased in the womb... then evolves out into the "waters of life"

The intent is to display different views & styles to express the journey... sometimes co-dependent sometimes at targets.

we have used cow placenta reflecting the female beginnings... & also a representation for the rural lifestyle we all co-exist in.